LET HIM COME! Can Get the Information He Wants From Good Democrats.

A dispatch from Frankfort says that Assistant Adjutant General Murray has ordered Major J. Embury Allen to investigate the conduct of Captain Longmire and Sergeant McClure in this city, who deny the newspaper reports of their escapade.

Major Allen will receive a cordial welcome here and will have no trouble in establishing the truth of every statement made in THE LEDGER, and that by good Democratic authority.

In this connection, THE LEDGER is in receipt of a private letter from Greenup, which says Longmire and his companion stopped at the Greenup House and paid their bill of $1 with an order on the State Treasurer, which the Democratic hostess offered to sell for 50 cents, with no takers.

Captain Prather of the Grayson Guards refused to recognize Longmire and McClure and would not have his Company mustered out by them.

HAPPILY WEDDED.

Nuptials of Mr. James Brent Wood and Miss Elizabeth Webb.

The Nashville American of Thursday says:

"One of the prettiest weddings ever celebrated at Glen Leven Church was that of Miss Elizabeth Webb to James Brent Wood last evening at 6 o'clock. It was a white and green wedding. The Church was beautifully decorated with lilies and smilax, and on the chancel and the palms many tapers burned in white flower cups.

"While awaiting the wedding party Scott Robertson sang 'O Fair and Holy', and Charles Bell sang 'The Sweetest Story Ever Told.' At the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride party entered the Church. Down the right aisle came the bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Kline and Miss Lemina Forde. Opposite them, on the left aisle, walked the groomsmen, Robert McNeilly and W. W. Hughes. Then came Miss Mary Wood of Maysville, Ky., sister of the groom, and Miss Etta Ewing, and the other groomsmen, Bryan Nowlin and Thomas Fidge.

"The bride, dressed in a full bridal toilette of white, looking as fair in her girlish beauty as the Bride roses she carried, entered, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Laura Webb. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Baker, of Kentucky, Dr. J. H. McNeilly performed the marriage ceremony.

"The maids were all gowned in white organdy. The maid of honor wore Nile green, thus carrying out the color scheme in the costumes.

"Mr. and Mrs. Wood left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip East. Returning about July 1st, they will make their home in Maysville, Ky.

"The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Quartermaster. Mr. Wood is a prominent young druggist of Maysville."

Burglars entered the large seed warehouse of Spears & Son in Paris Wednesday night, blew the safe in the office open and secured $100.

The safe in the office of the Standard Oil Company at Lexington was blown open by burglars Wednesday night and between $180 and $200 taken. The robbery was similar to the one committed at the Standard Oil Works in this city several weeks since. The burglars first broke the combination knob from the outside door, then placed the powder or dynamite in the hole, and over this a chunk of thick wet clay was laid in order to drown the sound of explosion.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Whiteset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him and he is again at his work." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following in grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? To a warmer and more regular climate. Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boesche's German Syrup." Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Pecor.
